

THE ATTACKS OF PKK/PYD/YPG TERROR
SUPPORTERS ON ORGANIZATIONS, INSTITUTIONS, AND CIVILIANS AFTER THE START OF OPERATION "OLIVE BRANCH"

PREFACE

Since its founding the PKK / KCK terror groups have pursued a continuous campaign of intimidating people living in the Eastern and Southeastern Anatolian regions of Turkey who have been subject to violence, village raids, assassinations, compulsory immigration and forced detention. The Syrian extension PYD / YPG applies the same strategy to the people living in Syria. The PYD / YPG has committed major crimes against humanity, including ethnic cleansing of Kurds, Arabs, Turkmen and Azizis living in the region. Such violations have been observed by international human rights institutions and reflected in their reports.

Due to the violence of the PYD / YPG terrorist organization in the region, many local people have been subjected to force migration. The Syrians fleeing from the violence have chosen to migrate to Turkey based on Turkey's open door policy for Syrian refugees. The Minister of Interior of the Republic of Turkey, Suleyman Soylu confirmed that that 3,551,078 people had entered Turkey as immigrants and refugees.

The PKK / YPG / PYD terror groups have taken control of some regions in Syria with the support of international powers and have been committing humanitarian crimes against the peoples of the region. One of the areas is Afrin, one of the 15 counties of the Aleppo province. This region has a strategic importance for Turkey.

Turkey shares a 130km long border with Afrin; therefore it has to ensure the security of this border. From Afrin to Hatay and Kilis, there have been 700 threats and assaults against Turkey by these terror groups.

The Government of Turkey, with the aim of stopping the humanitarian tragedy in Syria, and finding a solution while preserving the territorial integrity of Syria, and to clear the region of the US-backed terrorist organization PYD/YPG launched Operation Olive Branch on 20/01/2018 to liberate the region from terrorist and to restore sovereignty of the region to its people.

Immediately after the start of Olive Branch Operation, terrorist propaganda was carried out by the European branches of the PYD/YPG. European countries are ignoring the war Turkey has been waging against terrorist organizations. By allowing terrorist organizations to carry out acts glorifying terror under the name of "freedom of demonstration", they are encouraging these organizations to attack Turkey.

The protests have taken place in different cities across Europe where supporters of the terrorist organization have displayed the direct ideological ties between the PKK / YPG / PYD by carrying pictures of terrorist ringleader Abdullah Öcalan and PKK flags.

On 20th January, just after the launch of Operation Olive Branch, dozens of attacks were made in Europe against Turkish citizens, mosques and non-governmental organizations. This report shows the scope of these attacks.

Attacks committed by terrorist supporters in Europe are not only a threat to Turkish citizens, but also a threat to European governments, society and values. The attack carried out by the PKK / PYD / YPG supporters' on the office of SPD Hamburg Parliament deputy Michael Weinreich and the attack carried out during the weekly press conference of the government shows the extent of this danger.

We are calling on European politicians and organisations who are trying to be effective in the fight against terrorism and journalists and publishers who tolerate the terrorist supporters in the media to recognise that PKK / PYD / YPG terrorist organization supporters must be combated effectively to ensure the safety and lives of innocent people. A clear political attitude towards terrorism is needed. In this sense, it may be useful for all of us to recall the PKK violence in Europe in the 90's.

Founded in 2004, with branches in 200 European cities, UETD will continue to support the states that are fighting against terrorist organizations and terrorist supporters without distinction of language and race.

(Https://de.indymedia.org)

The letter is reproduced below:

According to this, we confess the attack on the DITİB Camis in Minden near Bielefeld. On January 22nd, we attacked this fascist center with stone and paint bottles, as a revenge command from Shahid Delal Ahmed. We destroyed all the windows and the entrance gate by grinding it. We polluted the front of the building with heavy paint. Also "revenge for Afrin" Shari Hilde! "(Afrin Revenge!)! We wrote the slogan under the window.

On Saturday, 20.01, the Turkish occupation army launched attacks on the Kurdish provinces of Afrin and Rojava, while all religious institutions, including DITİB, were praying for the victory of the Turkish army under the leadership of the Turkish religious authority Diyanet. In social media, jihad calls were made against "kafirler", "PKK terrorists". DITIB is the direct representative of the AKP regime in Germany and is therefore our main target. The mosque associations support MIT, the Turkish secret service, and are responsible for the assassination of opposition activists in Europe and Kurdish-Turkish revolutionaries. European countries, however, remain spectators.

We will not quietly watch the fascist regime in Ankara administer the war of extermination against the Kurdish people of Syria Kurdistan now. We will defend the Revolution and its success at any cost. The war that has just started is not just a war against the Kurdish people. It is the international war of all revolutionary forces against the democratic liberation of the Middle East. This war is, first of all, supported and financed by the German capital. We see the German imperialism as a war party in Rojava. The European states, and especially the Federal Germany, think they can isolate themselves without this development. If the secret weapons and armor destroyed our country and destroyed our country and if our children are being massacred, if this war is possible with political and financial support, if the revolutionaries are followed, detained, tortured and murdered by the secret intelligence services in a Turkish-fascist business union, we will not be afraid of fighting against the German streets. Everywhere is now a field of resistance.savunmaya çağrıyoruz. Bu acı durumda Erdoğan rejiminin tüm

We call on all revolutionaries and honest internationalists to do their own actions and to accept the institutions of Turkish fascism and German criminal partners as targets. All patriotic Kurdish youths today are calling on Afrin and the Kurdish revolution to protest. In this painful situation we reiterate that all the supporters of the Erdogan regime are legitimate targets. Revolutionary revenge commands! Defend Afrin! Death to fascism! Your life, President APO! Victory for the Revolutionary People's War in Kurdistan! Revenge Command "Shahid Delal Amed"

Bittere Bilanz nach Kurden-Demo in Kölner City

Einzelhändler beklagen Millionen-Einbußen

Köln - Wieder erlebte Köln ein Demo-Wochenende mit massiver Polizeipräsenz, Verböten, Festnahmen. Viele Betroffene ziehen wie immer eine bittere Bilanz. Erstmals macht jetzt das „Stadtmarketing Köln“ eine Minus-Rechnung auf: Jeder vierte Kunde habe am Samstag die City gemieden, die Umsatzeinbußen gehen in die Millionen Euro.

Was müssen die Bürger, Gäste und die Kölner Wirtschaft noch alles aushalten?", klagt Helmut Schmidt, Vorstandsvorsitzender von „Stadtmarketing Köln“. „Schon die Ankündigungen, dass mit der Großdemonstration große Teile der Innenstadt stillgelegt werden würden, ließ viele Gäste davon ab, nach Köln zu kommen.“ Und weiter: „Die Besucher, die sich dann noch nach Köln wagten, mussten sehr viel Geduld aufbringen, bevor sie die Innenstadt erreichten. Ab Mittag ging an der Rheinuferstraße nichts mehr, abends wurde es kaum besser.“

Die Bilanz: Der gesamte Einzelhandel in der City, also vom Mini-Lädchen bis zur Galeria Kaufhof zählte rund 25 Prozent weniger Frequenz. Alleine in der Schildergasse sind dies rechnerisch etwa 3400 Passanten weniger pro Stunde. Macht von 12 bis 19 Uhr grob 24 000 potentielle Kunden Verlust. Wenn statistisch jeder von ihnen im Schnitt 30 Euro ausgibt, was laut Handelsverband NRW noch „im geschätzten unteren Bereich“ liegt, wären dies nur in der Schildergasse 1,2 Millionen Euro minus in den Kassen. Hinzu kommen noch die Auswirkungen auf die Gastronomie: Absperren, Polizei-Hundertschaften und Wagenkolonnen hielten unzählige

Blick aus einem Fenster am Mediapark. Die Demo schnitt das Vieedel von der Altstadt ab...

...und umgekehrt konnten Eigelstein-Anwohner nicht zum „Saturn“.

Polizei: 2 Festnahmen, diverse Verfahren

Polizisten hatten beim Demonstrationszug zwei Männer vorläufig festgenommen und zur Vernehmung ins Polizeipräsidium gebracht. Nach ersten Ermittlungen hatten sie mehrere Dutzend verbotene Fahnen des PKK-Gründers Ocalan zur Demonstration transportiert und verteilt. Nachdem später die Polizei die Demo aufgelöst hatte, einige Teilnehmer die Strecke aber nicht räumten, bekamen diese Ordnungswidrigkeitsverfahren wegen „Nichtentfernen nach erfolgter Auflösung“ verpasst.

Gäste ab, auch am MediaPark gab es kein Durchkommen Richtung Ebertplatz und Eigelstein. Kölns „Klein Istanbul“ hatte die Polizei für die Demonstranten großflächig abge-sperrt: „Döner essen ging leider nicht, Einkaufen im Supermarkt war ebenso schwierig“, meint ein Anwohner. „Dafür schwirrte stundenlang der Polizeihubschrauber über den Köpfen.“

Jörg Hamel, Geschäftsführer vom Handelsverband NRW will ebenso wie „Stadtmarketing Köln“ als Interessensvertretung der Wirtschaft das Demonstrationsrecht auf keinen Fall in Frage stellen. Hamel sieht jedoch Kölns Einzelhändler in einer kritischen Lage, für die jeder Samstag fast überlebenswichtig sei: „Das Weihnachtsgeschäft war nicht herauschend. Wir hatten in der Adventszeit keinen verkaufsoffenen Sonntag. In diesen Tagen halten die Kölner das Geld zusammen, um es für den Karneval ausgeben zu können.“ Und er betont: „Wenn dann auch noch ein Samstag für eine Großdemo genehmigt wird, an dem parallel ein FC-Heimspiel stattfindet und sowieso schon die City beeinträchtigt ist, hat das für die Geschäftsleute verheerende Auswirkungen.“

Und selbst die Bilanz für die Demo-Veranstalter fällt nicht gut aus. Starr 20 900 kamen nur etwa 14 000 Teilnehmer - und der Protest wurde vorzeitig von der Polizei aufgelöst, wegen „eklatanter Verstößen gegen Auflagen und Versammlungs-
